Google Books Advanced – How to Operate

Getting to Google Books Advanced

Use Google or Bing and ...

Simply search for the words:  Google Books Advanced

Once you have arrived at Google Books Advanced Search click on either “Limited preview and full view” for newer works

... or click on “Full view only” for older books published before 1923.
Then type in your search and perhaps limit the publication date.

Once you click on one of the books retrieved by your search …
You can search through the entire book by typing a word or phrase in the search box on the left-hand column.

This search will quickly take you to all of the pages that contain the word you searched for. You can then click on a page number to view the word in context.
If you want to locate a complete print copy of the book, or if you want to find a citation for this book, either click on the link “Find in a library”, or the link “Get this book in print” and then click on “Find in a library”. This will take you to the WorldCat website.

WorldCat – the catalog of all library catalogs – will provide you with a citation …
... and WorldCat will also display a list of the closest libraries that own a copy of the book. In this case UNI owns “Securing Privacy in the Internet Age” ... so click on the “University of Northern Iowa” link to get the call number (and eventually the book).
